Urgent Care Coding & Consulting Services

Urgent Care providers are faced with key financial and resource challenges. LexiCode can customize staffing plans and provide skilled coders at competitive prices. Our team of credentialed coders is experienced in Urgent Care coding including S-code assignment and has a strong management infrastructure. Our team's top coding skills and experience provides high accuracy right from the start.

- AHIMA and/or AAPC credentialed staff

- Support available 7 days a week with flexible hours; in multiple time zones

- Domestic and international options

- Flexible and customized arrangements

- Our experienced coders provide:

    - Coding for all record types (facility and physician based)

    - Ability to review provider assigned E&M codes

    - Experience in professional E&M, facility E&M, I&I, and CPT

    - Knowledge of modifiers

    - Office visit coding

    - Real-time coding

- AHA, AHIMA, and CMS compliant

- International secure and monitored facility with infrastructure designed to protect PHI and maintain uptime

- Lower denial rates

- Accurate reimbursement

- Improvement of coding accuracy and cash/copay collection at the point of service

- Reduction of patient checkout times

- Providing healthcare practitioners additional time to see more patients instead of addressing administrative duties